WHO WE ARE

Green Translations is a full-service language translation agency using its language skills to help with the problem of Global Warming. Our more than 200 language professionals are experts in at least one field of translation, are furnished with credentials and diplomas, certified by the American Translators Association (ATA) or by other reputable translators associations around the globe, and always natives of the language they work on. The agency has been in business for more than 12 years offering language translation services to companies and organizations big and small everywhere in the world.

Green T is a leading translation company, and also a portal to a leading solution for the Global Warming threat. We use our language expertise to help companies develop their global translation support, and at the same time we make them aware of the threat to our environment. We also offer the highest environmental standards in the industry.

We have reduced our own carbon footprint throughout the entire process of our service, managing all that's possible as electronic format, and following the strictest environmental regulations. We have been certified by the Bay Area Green Business Program for our efforts to eliminate our carbon footprint through recycling, paper reduction, waste reduction, lighting usage, use of Energy Star qualified products, carbon credits, using web hosting that's 100% powered by wind energy, and promoting this values and practices among our clients and contractors.

We offer a range of high-end translation services to help our clients grow, and manage their international business ever more profitably. We can provide assistance with any challenge globalization throws your way, either through the expertise we have in-house or through our extensive network of proven partners.

In response to the global warming problem, Green T is committed to contribute 1% of our revenue to the many organizations helping environmental and humanitarian causes, along with our membership to Green America, which is the largest network of green companies in the country. It's our commitment to you and our pledge to the environment.

WEBSITE LOCALIZATION

Green T offers a high quality website localization service. We have extensive experience of e-commerce and Internet marketing, and have learnt how to overcome the difficulties of adding foreign language versions to existing websites, as well as translating entire websites into different languages.

Website localization is crucial, and here's why:

- More than 50% of queries on Google are submitted in languages other than English (in 2002 the volume of inquiries was less than 30%). More than a third of such queries are submitted in a European language other than English (Google, the Google Zeitgeist, June 2003).
- Annual net-influenced sales rose to more than 20 billion Euros across Europe in December 2002 and contributed 5 billion Euros in Germany alone (Forrester Research).
- Visitors to a site are more than four times as likely to buy from a website with content in their own language and spend twice as long on the page (Independent research).

Websites need to work from a commercial perspective to be sustainable. Our website localization service takes all this into account to produce a localized website which is not only accurate, but also reads naturally in the target language.

Good website localization should always seem as if the content was originally written for the target language.

Website translation means focusing on a variety of factors including the language. Like all professional translation agencies, we convey the sense of language so key messages work in the relevant language. We would never consider translating word-for-word.

But there are often other issues to consider. For instance, translating from English in some European languages can mean that the amount of text increases (by 16% in the case of Spanish, German is often larger). This can be a problem if you have a template system already in place. So we will work with you to ensure that the website translation we provide addresses as many issues as possible - and deliver on time and to budget.

Able to work with all manner of content management system (CMS), we make the creation and maintenance of multilingual websites child's play.

DESKTOP PUBLISHING

Green T employs a dedicated team of DTP experts who can provide desktop publishing (typeset) for your translated text in any language or file format. The most common programs we use are:

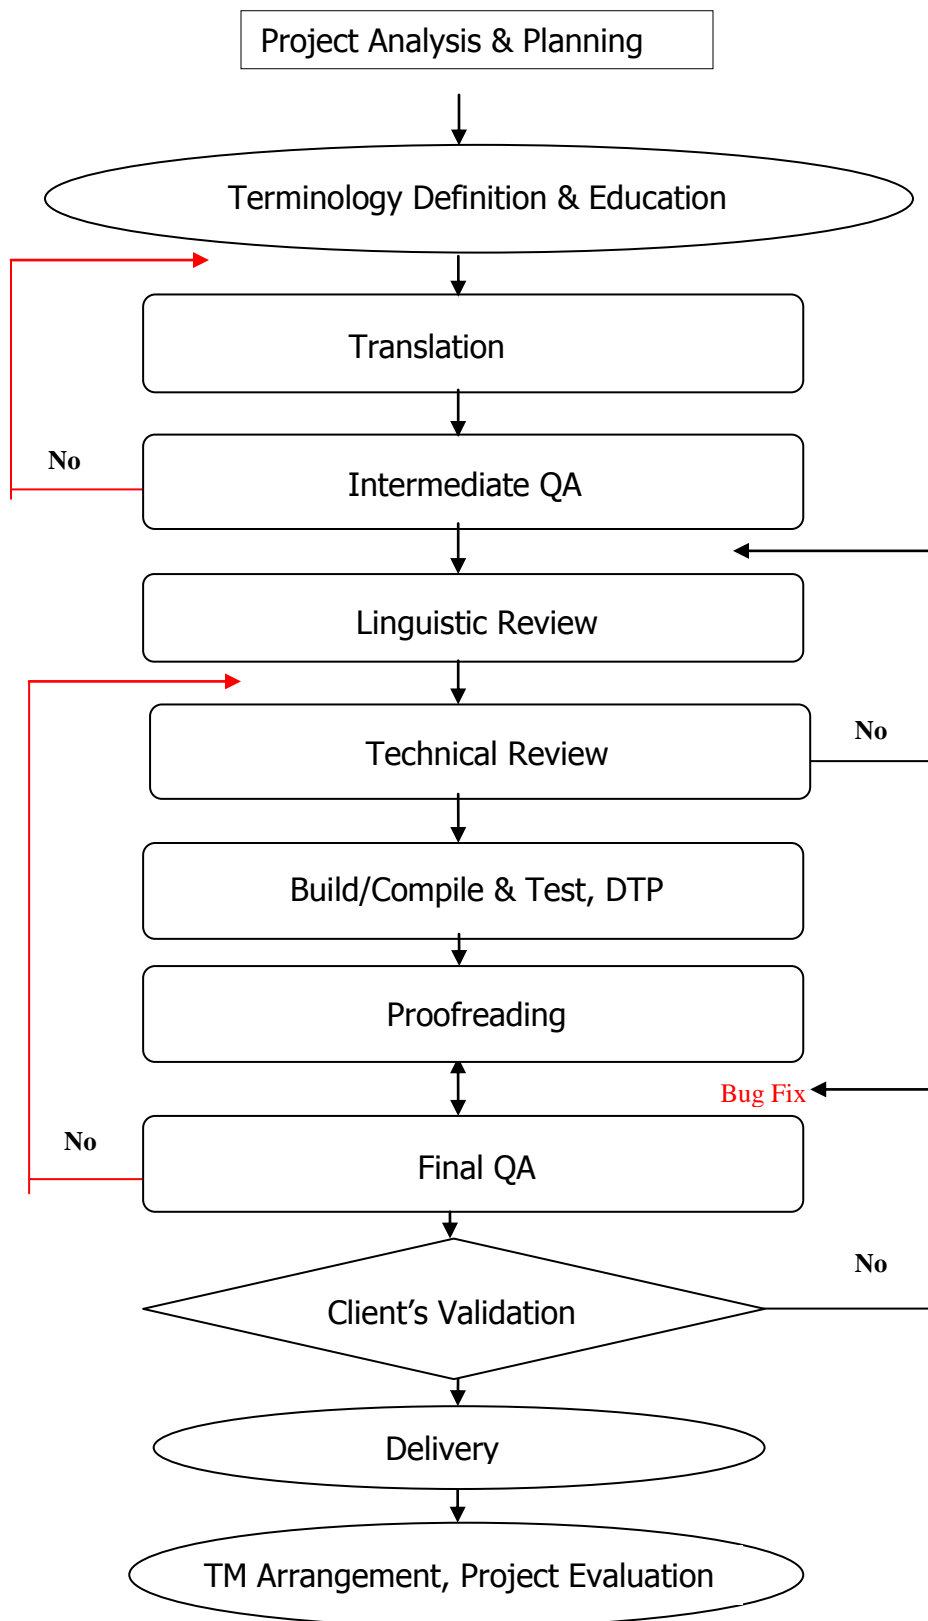

- Adobe Page Maker
- QuarkXpress
- Corel Draw
- Adobe InDesign
- Adobe Illustrator
- FreeHand
- AutoCAD
- Adobe FrameMaker
- Adobe InCopy

The main advantage of outsourcing your DTP work with your translation is that your operators/designers do not have to deal with languages they do not know, thus avoiding the risk of pieces of text being reconstituted incorrectly. If you use Green T, you can be sure that your material will be laid out appropriately just as it would be if your designers were working in their own mother tongue. You will receive a file from us which is ready to send to your printers or if you don't have an existing printer, we can organize the printing too!

Simply send us your source file in one of the above formats, supporting graphics and/or logos, and your Word document for translation (if available), and we'll do the rest!

This allows you to work with the translations provided without having to buy expensive fonts to support non-Roman fonts (e.g. Chinese, Russian, Hindi, Urdu, Punjabi, Gujarati, Arabic, Bengali, Greek etc.)
